BETTERMENT OF
SERVICE FOR CAR-
RIER AND PATRONRURAL DELIVERY NOT ONLY A GREAT BOON, BUT AN ACTUAL NECESSITYW. M. HUGHES, POSTAL INSPECTOR,
OR, ADDRESSES RURAL CAR-RIERS CONVENTION

President J. G. Schroeder made these committee appointments at the nineteenth annual convention of the Minnesota Rural Letter Carriers' Association:

Auditing committee—O. F. Johnson of Mankato, chairman; M. Blatzheim of Ottawa, Frank Loney, Stillwater.

Mileage and per diem—A. D. Gant of Randall, chairman; J. W. Clark, Anoka and George B. Cunningham of Heron Lake.

Resolutions—Wm. Everest of Brainerd, chairman; Walter Riley of Madelia and Nels Pearson of Wellcome.

Constitution and bylaws—M. H. Stregbel of Mapleton, chairman; Ed Spliss of Lester Prairie and Wm. Straunsky of Owatonna.

Good roads—L. E. Deltrick of Milaca, chairman; Wm. Dobbin of Glenwood and H. Lindberg of Karlstad.

Memorial—G. W. McGrady of Owatonna, chairman; John Cronen of Lake City and George M. Davis of Glencoe.

Insurance—F. Henry, Farmington; W. H. Kennedy, Prior Lake.

W. M. Hughes
W. M. Hughes of Minneapolis, postal inspector, at the Saturday morning session, answered scores of questions which had accumulated in the question box.

It was brought out that under the new policy of humanizing the service many seemingly trivial but annoying questions were being speedily attended to and satisfactorily adjusted.

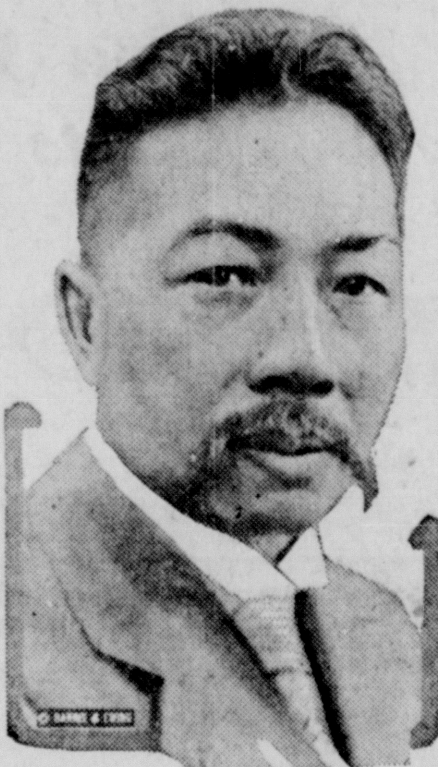

In his address M. Hughes said in part:

"The postal service is the branch of the government's activities which comes in closest contact with the people and on which they must depend for business and personal communication in large measure, and also to a very great extent for their news, papers, magazines, trade—stock—and agricultural journals, and residents of rural communities are especially dependent upon the Post Office Department for means of communication and for the regular receipt of news, market reports, etc., but in an increasing degree for many essentials purchased and transported through the mails from the large department stores of the cities and from their local merchants of the towns, villages and hamlets. So it may be readily realized that rural delivery is felt by the patrons of that branch of the service to be not only a great boon, convenience and comfort, but an actual essential, and the carriers who come in close contact with these patrons have it in their power to aid the Department in its efforts to extend the benefits afforded by the service in which they are employed, and the Department looks to them with confidence, not only to discharge their duties with fidelity which they have proved they can be depended upon to do, but to use their utmost endeavor to give to their respective patrons prompt, regular and careful delivery and collection of the mails and in extending the incidental facilities which the service provides, but to suggest the fullest use of these conveniences and an increased use of the mails.

The rural carriers as a class are an intelligent body of men and should readily appreciate the important part which they can take in helping to humanize the postal service. For, of course, it is the Postmaster General's desire to extend the humanizing policy not only to the employees of the postal service but also to the patrons of the service. The carriers are to be commended upon the manner in which they have responded to the more considerate treatment accorded them by the present postal administration.

A TREATY WITH GERMANY IS VERY NEAR COMPLETIONMAY BE SIGNED ANY DAY—WILL
NOT BE SUBMITTED TO SEN-ATE UNTIL DEC.

By L. C. MARTIN,
(Staff Correspondent United Press)

Washington, Aug. 13—A treaty with Germany is rapidly nearing completion and will be ready for signatures "almost any day" it was learned today.

President Harding has told senators that the treaty is taking shape rapidly. Rapid progress is being made toward concluding the negotiations now going on between Ellis Loring Drexel, American commissioner at Berlin, and the German government, but it is unlikely that any treaty agreement will be submitted to the senate before the December session of congress.

U. S. Will be Represented
Allied Relief Commission to Aid Russian Famine

WEBB MILLER
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Paris, Aug. 13—Colonel George Harvey yesterday declared that the United States prefers to stay aloof from strictly European questions.

Replying to a question during the allied supreme council session yesterday, he declared that it was with a sense of relief he saw the Silesian problem "referred to a body with which the United States is not associated."

The council had just decided to ask the league of nations to solve the Silesian question.

Allies Again Clash

Paris, Aug. 13—Allied viewpoints clashed again today at the meeting of the supreme council.

The clash was over the strictness of the allied control of German aviation activities.

Allies Disagree Over
Evacuating German Territory

Paris, Aug. 13—The supreme council in its final session today again reached a deadlock—this time over the question of allied evacuation of German territory.

Lord Curzon, British foreign minister urged the immediate evacuation of Dusseldorf and Ruhrort areas and raising of the Rhine customs barrier, maintaining that Germany had sufficiently proved her good faith in her acceptance of the recently allied ultimatum.

Premier Briand vigorously opposed him, insisting on continuation of the occupation until Germany has given better proof.

The council adjourned for tea, after which another attempt will be made to reach an agreement.

MILLIONAIRE BANKER
DIES OF JOY WHEN
SON IS PARDONED

(By United Press)

Oroway, Col., Aug. 13—Overcome with emotion when told that his son, Frank Enyhart, had been pardoned, Abner B. Enyhart, millionaire banker, fell dead.

The son, Frank, who was estranged from his father, was convicted of bootlegging and sentenced to six months in jail. The father used his influence to have Frank pardoned. Physicians said the father was overcome with joy when he heard of the pardon.

Haywood Causes a
Hitch in Relief Plans

By RUSSELL BROWNING,
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Washington, Aug. 13—Big Bill Haywood, wanted by this government to serve out a twenty year term in Leavenworth, has caused a hitch in relief plans for soviet Russia, it developed today at the office of Herbert Hoover, head of the American relief administration.

Haywood, who made his way to Russia, instead of joining the other I. W. W. in jail, is on the list of Americans still in Russia.

Walter L. Brown, relief commissioner and representatives of the soviet government, are puzzled by Haywood's case, and that of others who were deported on the Soviet Ark but who claim they are Americans.

"These men do not want to leave Russia," Envoy Litvinoff said.

Brown's instructions were that all Americans should be given a chance to leave Russia. Haywood's name and some of the others were not on a list furnished Brown by the state department, so Brown has asked for instructions in the matter.

The answer of American officials is expected to reach Brown today.

BURCH THREATENED
KENNEDY'S LIFE
BEFORE THE MURDER

(By United Press)

Los Angeles, Aug. 13—The district attorney's office has produced a witness to testify that Arthur C. Burch threatened the life of John B. Kennedy previous to the time Kennedy was murdered, it developed here today.

The witness is Mrs. James C. Warren, wife of a Santa Barbara banker. Mrs. Warren made an acquaintance with Burch on a Los Angeles bound trans-continental train.

"I am going out there to see that a certain party treats a friend of mind right. If he does not I am going to get him."

This is the statement Mrs. Warren is said to have informed the district attorney's office that Burch confided in her during the trip.

Will Be Tried Together

Los Angeles, Aug. 13—The defense will demand that Arthur C. Burch and Madelyne Obenchain indicted for the murder of John Belton Kennedy, be tried together, it was intimated today.

Previously it had been thought probable that each would demand a separate trial and the verdict in case one would not conflict with the other, and the same jury would not sit in both cases.

Apparently, however, both Burch and Madelyne are willing to share their fate and accept a common verdict.

Soft Drink Parlor
Proprietor is Shot

(United Press)

St. Paul, Aug. 13—Leo A. Gushman mistook detectives for bandits early today and is dying with a bullet wound near his heart.

Gushman telephoned the police that his soft drink parlor had been robbed. Detectives Joe Black, and Wm. Gaston, both colored, and Oscar Peterson, white, went to the scene.

Gushman saw them coming and apparently thought they were more bandits. He flourished a revolver and was about to fire when Gaston shot first. Gaston claimed he shot to save himself. Police said Gushman probably was mentally upset from the holdup.

HARDING NAMES
HUGHES TO HEAD
U. S. DELEGATIONSECRETARY OF STATE TO REPRESENT
THE PRESIDENT AT DIS-
ARMING CONFERENCEEXECUTIVE TO DELIVER OPENING ADDRESS, THEN ACT AS MEDIATOR

Washington, Aug. 13—Any expectation that President Harding will himself act as a delegate to the disarmament conference was overthrown today by a White House announcement that he had definitely designated Secretary Hughes of the state department to head the American delegation.

It was said that other members were yet to be chosen, although the President is known to have narrowed considerably the list of those he considers available and may reach the point of other definite selections in the very near future. He is understood to have decided that at least one of the places shall go to a United States senator, and the choice of a woman as a member of the delegation is within the range of possibility.

Harding's Role
The exact role to be played by the President never has been officially defined, but the general expectation is that after delivering the opening address of the conference on Nov. 11, he will remain in the background of the negotiations, leaving direct contact with the foreign commissioners to his accredited representatives, but at the same time keeping in close touch with them and with all the proceedings.

OREGON DOCTOR
WANTED FOR MURDER
ARRESTED IN CANADA

(By United Press)

Roseburg, Oregon Aug. 13—Deputies were ordered to Calgary, Alberta, today to bring back Dr. R. M. Brumfield, arrested by the Northwest mounted police on charges of murdering Dennis Russell July 13.

The body of Russell was found in the wreckage of an automobile belonging to Brumfield. The body was charred by fire when the auto burned, and was mutilated.

Brumfield carried heavy insurance and authorities contend he murdered Russell with the hope that the body would be identified as his own. His wife would collect the insurance and then he would join her later.

The body of Russell was identified by his shoes and scraps of clothing. Brumfield was arrested in a small town north of Calgary, according to reports reaching here. He first gave his name as Norman Whitney, saying he was a farm laborer. But later he was said to have admitted his identity and said he would not fight extradition.

Brumfield formerly lived in Evansville, Illinois.

Stock Market Steady—
Better Grades Slightly Higher

(By United Press)

South St. Paul, Aug. 13—Receipts in all departments were light today and the market ruled steady. For the week better grades of beef and butcher cattle were steady to higher and other unevenly twenty-five to fifty cents lower. Bulls are twenty-five to fifty cents lower. Veal is mostly fifty cents lower. Better grades of stockers and feeders were twenty-five cents to fifty cents higher and others steady to twenty-five cents lower.

Hogs sold about steady with choice light to shippers a little higher at $10.50.

Sheep and lambs are closing weak to twenty-five cents lower. Closing top of native lambs was about $8.75, and light ewes about $4.00.

Wins Name of Father
for Her Children

(By United Press)

Denver, Col., Aug. 13—Denied the legal right to her sweetheart's name Miss Nellie Phillips, soul mate of George Stoffer won his name for the two children she bore him. Stoffer, whose wife admitted she knew of his soulmate and had often entertained her, readily consented to paying $80 a month for the care of Miss Phillips and the children.

Miss Phillips said she and Stoffer had lived as man and wife within one block of Stoffer's home.

Both women professed love for Stoffer but said they had no feeling of enmity for each other.

The story of the triangle was revealed when Miss Phillips feared Stoffer was going to leave with his legal wife and "love babies" and a 4-year-old to the juvenile court.

AMERICAN RELIEF
OF STARVING RUSSIA
WILL BEGIN TODAYCONDITIONS HAVE BEEN AGREED
ON AND WILL BE SIGNED
DURING THE DAY

(By United Press)

Riga, Aug. 13—The American effort to save Russia's starving millions was expected to begin officially today. The soviet and United States governments already have agreed on the conditions under which relief work will be conducted and the formal pact was to be signed when Walter L. Brown, European director of the American relief administration, and Maxim Litvinoff, bolshevik envoy, resume their conference.

Brown received a cablegram from Secretary Hughes instructing him to proceed with the meeting. This was taken as meaning that release of American prisoners who have already crossed the frontier has convinced the American government of Russia's sincerity. Four more Americans arrived at Riga late yesterday, including two women.

After receipt of Hughes' communication, Brown submitted to Litvinoff a proposal for guarantee of protection for American food and distribution personnel and outlined a tentative method of distribution. The details of the work are to be outlined in today's meeting.

Plans for Funeral of Dr.
Stone Announced Today

St. Paul, Aug. 13—Definite plans for the funeral of Dr. Winthrop Stone, late president of Purdue university, were to be announced in Chicago today. Relatives passed through here from Banff with the body last night. Dr. Harland Stone of Columbia university described how the hardy mountaineers had rescued Mrs. Stone from the precipitous ledge on Mount Eanon eight days after her husband fell to his death.

The same men returned to Mount Eanon and erected a cairn atop the mountain in memory of Dr. Stone who was the first man to scale the peak.

NEW TAXES FALL
ON THOSE WHO ARE
MOST ABLE TO PAYSAYS STATEMENT ISSUED FROM
THE WHITE HOUSE DEFEND-
ING TAX REVISION
PROPOSALSADMINISTRATION AIMS AT METH-ODS THAT WOULD RAISE
REVENUE WITH CER-
TAINTY

By RAYMOND CLAPPER,
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Washington, Aug. 13—The larger share of taxes under the administration revenue revision program will fall on those who are most able to pay, according to a statement issued at the White House today, defending President Harding against criticism from various quarters.

There has been no effort to reduce only taxes of the rich, it was insisted. On the contrary the administration is bent on saying that every class bears its proportionate share of the taxes and that fraud and evasion possible under the existing law are made impossible, the White House said.

"The aim of the administration is to establish methods that would raise the needed revenue with reasonable certainty, that it makes collections just and would properly adjust the burden among all classes of the community," the statement said. It is felt that highly important progress has been made along that line.

The social and economic bearing of the new proposals are significant and there has been no effort to relieve the rich of their share of the burden, but rather to insure that no one will be left on the avenue of escape. Casual analysis of the proposal show that what may be described as rich man's taxes will produce about $1,800,000,000 while the balance will be distributed over the entire community, rich and poor, the rich being certain, because they are proportionately the greater consumers, to pay a proportionately much greater tax.

EXPRESS TAXES
ALSO REPEALEDALL TRANSPORTATION TAXES
NOW SCHEDULED FOR REPEAL
—TAX ON SOFT DRINKS

(By United Press)

Washington, Aug. 13—Federal taxes were reduced still lower by action of the republican members of the house ways and means committee today.

The present tax on express rates was repealed. The committee having previously eliminated the passenger, pullman and freight taxes this makes a complete repeal effective January 1, 1922 of all transportation with the exception of the levies on iron and gas pipe lines.

Under the existing law the express tax is one cent for each twenty cent charge.

The charges on cereal beverages including mainly near beer was reduced from fifteen cents a gallon as advised by the committee a few days ago to twelve cents.

The new tax imposed was a ten dollar flat license tax on all soft drinks. The committee transferred the present so called luxury tax on eight classes of high priced articles from the consumers to the manufacturers. The present rate on the consumers is ten per cent above a certain price considered fair charge. The rates from the manufacturer is five per cent.

Robbers Get $4,000 in Jewelry

Chicago, Aug. 13—Negro robbers ransacked the home of Isaac Stern early today and escaped with $4,000 worth of jewelry and other valuables. When Stern and his wife returned home three hours after the robbery they found the maid bound and gagged. She was unconscious. Their three year old baby was under a bed where he had crawled on seeing the robbers.

W. M. Hughes of Minneapolis, postal inspector, at the Saturday morning session, answered scores of questions which had accumulated in the question box.

It was brought out that under the new policy of humanizing the service many seemingly trivial but annoying questions were being speedily attended to and satisfactorily adjusted.

In his address M. Hughes said in part:

"The postal service is the branch of the government's activities which comes in closest contact with the people and on which they must depend for business and personal communication in large measure, and also to a very great extent for their newspapers, magazines, trade—stock and agricultural journals, and residents of rural communities are especially dependent upon the Post Office Department for means of communication and for the regular receipt of news, market reports, etc., but in an increasing degree for many essentials purchased and transported through the mails from the large department stores of the cities and from their local merchants of the towns, villages and hamlets. So it may be readily realized that rural delivery is felt by the patrons of that branch of the service to be not only a great boon, convenience and comfort, but an actual essential, and the carriers who come in close contact with these patrons have it in their power to aid the Department in its efforts to extend the benefits afforded by the service in which they are employed, and the Department looks to them with confidence, not only to discharge their duties with fidelity which they have proved they can be depended upon to do, but to use their utmost endeavor to give to their respective patrons prompt, regular and careful delivery and collection of the mails and in extending the incidental facilities which the service provides, but to suggest the fullest use of these conveniences and an increased use of the mails.

The rural carriers as a class are an intelligent body of men and should readily appreciate the important part which they can take in helping to humanize the postal service. For, of course, it is the Postmaster General's desire to extend the humanizing policy not only to the employees of the postal service but also to the patrons of the service. The carriers are to be commended upon the manner in which they have responded to the more considerate treatment accorded them by the present postal administration.

WANTED FOR MURDER
ARRESTED IN CANADA

(By United Press)

Roseburg, Oregon Aug. 13.—Deputies were ordered to Calgary, Alberta, today to bring back Dr. R. M. Brumfield, arrested by the Northwest mounted police on charges of murdering Dennis Russell July 13.

The body of Russell was found in the wreckage of an automobile belonging to Brumfield. The body was charred by fire when the auto burned, and was mutilated.

Brumfield carried heavy insurance and authorities contend he murdered Russell with the hope that the body would be identified as his own. His wife would collect the insurance and then he would join her later.

The body of Russell was identified by his shoes and scraps of clothing. Brumfield was arrested in a small town north of Calgary, according to reports reaching here. He first gave his name as Norman Whitney, saying he was a farm laborer. But later he was said to have admitted his identity and said he would not fight extradition.

Brumfield formerly lived in Evansville, Illinois.

Stock Market Steady—
Better Grades Slightly Higher

(By United Press)

South St. Paul, Aug. 13.—Receipts in all departments were light today and the market ruled steady. For the week better grades of beef and butcher cattle were steady to higher and other unevenly twenty-five to fifty cents lower. Bulls are twenty-five to fifty cents lower. Veal is mostly fifty cents lower. Better grades of stockers and feeders were twenty-five cents to fifty cents higher and others steady to twenty-five cents lower.

Hogs sold about steady with choice light to shippers a little higher at $10.50.

Sheep and lambs are closing weak to twenty-five cents lower. Closing top of native lambs was about $8.75, and light ewes about $4.00.

Wins Name of Father
for Her Children

(By United Press)

Denver, Col., Aug. 13.—Denied the legal right to her sweetheart's name Miss Nellie Phillips, soul mate of George Stoffer won his name for the two children she bore him. Stoffer, whose wife admitted she knew of his soulmate and had often entertained her, readily consented to paying $80 a month for the care of Miss Phillips and the children.

Miss Phillips said she and Stoffer had lived as man and wife within one block of Stoffer's home.

Both women professed love for Stoffer but said they had no feeling of enmity for each other.

The story of the triangle was revealed when Miss Phillips feared Stoffer was going to leave with his legal wife and "love babies" and a 4-year-old to the juvenile court.

AMERICAN RELIEF
OF STARVING RUSSIA
WILL BEGIN TODAY

CONDITIONS HAVE BEEN AGREED
ON AND WILL BE SIGNED
DURING THE DAY

(By United Press)

Riga, Aug. 13.—The American effort to save Russia's starving millions was expected to begin officially today. The soviet and United States governments already have agreed on the conditions under which relief work will be conducted and the formal pact was to be signed when Walter L. Brown, European director of the American relief administration, and Maxim Litvinoff, bolshevik envoy, resume their conference.

Brown received a cablegram from Secretary Hughes instructing him to proceed with the meeting. This was taken as meaning that release of American prisoners who have already crossed the frontier has convinced the American government of Russia's sincerity. Four more Americans arrived at Riga late yesterday, including two women.

After receipt of Hughes' communication, Brown submitted to Litvinoff a proposal for guarantee of protection for American food and distribution personnel and outlined a tentative method of distribution. The details of the work are to be outlined in today's meeting.

Questions Alone

(By United Press)

Paris, Aug. 13.—American Ambassador Harvey has consented to include the United States in the Russian relief commission, the composition of which was decided upon by the supreme council today.

It was decided that the commission should consist of three members for each power represented on the supreme council. The commission will merely study the means of coordinating relief activities.

Plans for Funeral of Dr.
Stone Announced Today

St. Paul, Aug. 13.—Definite plans for the funeral of Dr. Winthrop Stone, late president of Purdue university, were to be announced in Chicago today. Relatives passed through here from Banff with the body last night. Dr. Harland Stone of Columbia university described how the hardy mountaineers had rescued Mrs. Stone from the precipitous ledge on Mount Eanon eight days after her husband fell to his death.

The same men returned to Mount Eanon and erected a cairn atop the mountain in memory of Dr. Stone who was the first man to scale the peak.

NEW TAXES FALL
ON THOSE WHO ARE
MOST ABLE TO PAY

SAYS STATEMENT ISSUED FROM
THE WHITE HOUSE DEFEND-
ING TAX REVISION
PROPOSALS

ADMINISTRATION AIMS AT METH-ODS THAT WOULD RAISE
REVENUE WITH CER-
TAINTY

By RAYMOND CLAPPER,
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Washington, Aug. 13.—The larger share of taxes under the administration revenue revision program will fall on those who are most able to pay, according to a statement issued at the White House today, defending President Harding against criticism from various quarters.

There has been no effort to reduce only taxes of the rich, it was insisted. On the contrary the administration is bent on saying that every class bears its proportionate share of the taxes and that fraud and evasion possible under the existing law are made impossible, the White House said.

"The aim of the administration is to establish methods that would raise the needed revenue with reasonable certainty, that it makes collections just and would properly adjust the burden among all classes of the community," the statement said. It is felt that highly important progress has been made along that line.

The social and economic bearing of the new proposals are significant and there has been no effort to relieve the rich of their share of the burden, but rather to insure that no one will be left on the avenue of escape. Casual analysis of the proposal show that what may be described as rich man's taxes will produce about $1,800,000,000 while the balance will be distributed over the entire community, rich and poor, the rich being certain, because they are proportionately the greater consumers, to pay a proportionately much greater tax.

EXPRESS TAXES
ALSO REPEALED

ALL TRANSPORTATION TAXES
NOW SCHEDULED FOR REPEAL
—TAX ON SOFT DRINKS

(By United Press)

Washington, Aug. 13.—Federal taxes were reduced still lower by action of the republican members of the house ways and means committee today.

The present tax on express rates was repealed. The committee having previously eliminated the passenger, pullman and freight taxes this makes a complete repeal effective January 1, 1922 of all transportation with the exception of the levies on iron and gas pipe lines.

Under the existing law the express tax is one cent for each twenty cent charge.

The charges on cereal beverages including mainly near beer was reduced from fifteen cents a gallon as advised by the committee a few days ago to twelve cents.

The new tax imposed was a ten dollar flat license tax on all soft drinks. The committee transferred the present so called luxury tax on eight classes of high priced articles from the consumers to the manufacturers. The present rate on the consumers is ten per cent above a certain price considered fair charge. The rates from the manufacturer is five percent.

Robbers Get $4,000 in Jewelry

Chicago Aug. 13.—Negro robbers ransacked the home of Isaac Stern early today and escaped with $4,000 worth of jewelry and other valuables. When Stern and his wife returned home three hours after the robbery they found the maid bound and gagged. She was unconscious. Their three year old baby was under a bed where he had crawled on seeing the robbers.

Officers in Convention in October

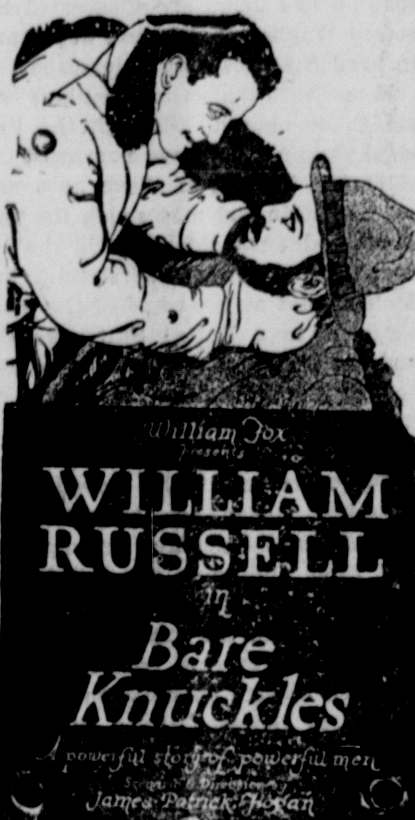

St. Paul, Aug. 13—The first annual convention of the Officers' Reserve Corps, seventh corps area, will be held here October 14-15. Originally the date was set for August 17. Postponement was necessitated because of the fact that many members of the corps are now attending National Guard encampments.

Indians Change in One Generation

Fort Yates, N. D., Aug. 13—In one generation the Indians of Standing Rock Reservation have been changed from nomadic bands of warriors with pinto ponies and war bonnets to hard-working farmers with straw hats and tractors, according to James B. Kitch, former superintendent of the reservation.

The reservation derives its name from a rock which, because it resembles a squaw with a papoose on her back, has given rise to a legend.

It is said that a squaw, jealous of her husband, wandered away with her baby and disappeared. When her husband and his friends went in search of her, they found only the rock. Many of the older Indians still believe that it is the lost squaw, who will sometime return to life.

HUMANIZING POSTAL SERVICE BEARS FRUIT

tration, but they are so still further assistance by extending to the patrons every courtesy and accommodation that can consistently be extended. It is especially desirable that in advising a patron of a requirement which he has failed to meet, this be done in such a way that not only will the patron be unable to take offense, but that he will readily see the advisability of the requirement and the necessity of compliance therewith.

In order that they may render the most efficient and satisfactory service possible the carriers should thoroughly familiarize themselves with the regulations pertaining to the rural delivery service which have been incorporated in a conveniently small book for distribution to every carrier in the rural service. In addition to this book of instructions there is always an article in the July Postal Guide which contains much useful information in regard to the rural delivery service, and which every rural carrier should read and study.

If at any time the rural carriers desire to write to the Department for the purpose of making a suggestion whereby the service may be improved or the personnel of the rural carrier force benefited, or for the purpose of securing information on a doubtful point, we want them to feel free to do so, and they may rest assured that their communications will receive attention.

The Department believes there is practically no limit to which the parcel post can be extended on rural routes by active effort on the part of the carriers in suggesting to patrons the advantages they may derive through obtaining supplies by this method, but especially by establishing a demand for and trade in the products of their farms, orchards and gardens. The dwellers in cities and towns are always eager to purchase such products when they can receive them so easily and in a fresh and attractive condition. Of course, active and interested cooperation of the carriers is necessary in this line of work, for careful handling of cases of fruits, vegetables or eggs, or other perishable products is essential to success, as is the transportation and delivery of all such articles not only without delay but with the utmost dispatch.

Carriers in the rural service are permitted to use automobiles in their work but should have in mind the convenience of the patron, and not change from one type of vehicle to another without giving due notice to patrons. If possible, so that they may be able to accommodate themselves to the changed time of arrival at the boxes along the routes. The Department wishes to be informed always when carriers make use of automobiles in the service so that proper schedules may be adopted covering their use as well as the use of horse-drawn vehicles when that type of conveyance is also needed.

The location of boxes of patrons along rural routes is the subject of much discussion and correspondence. Until traffic conditions demanded the making of regulations and their strict observance in most cases, the location of boxes was not a very material matter so long as they were accessible to the carriers without dismounting from their vehicles. But conditions are very different now on improved highways with fast moving vehicles which must observe the requirements to keep to the right and that all other traffic shall do the same. This has made necessary the promulgation of the rule of the Department that when because of traffic conditions, to travel from side to side of the road would endanger the life of the carrier and the safety of the mails, or would be in violation of local ordinances in respect to the use of the highways, all boxes be erected on the right hand side of the road as regularly travelled by the carrier. As, however, a large proportion of the more than 43,000 rural routes are in localities where travel is of but limited extent it has not been thought necessary or expedient that this requirement be made to apply universally, but only where conditions make it a real necessity. Carriers can avoid much irritation upon the part of patrons, when it becomes necessary to require a change in the location of boxes, by courteously and patiently explaining the need, and making the fact clear that a compliance on their part is really in their own interest as everything that helps the carrier in his work speeds up and improves the service to the patrons. It is of great advantage where a considerable number of patrons live within a short distance of one another to have their boxes grouped so that one stop of the carriers suffices and the Department favors but does not insist upon such an arrangement of boxes where feasible.

Under the regulations a rural carrier is required when he finds an unstamped mail in a patron's box and the requisite amount of money for postage properly wrapped or placed in a coin-holding receptacle to collect the mail and money and affix the necessary stamps. Some carriers seem to believe that because they carry a supply of stamps with them which the patrons could obtain and with proper effort or care on their part be able to have stamps on hand and avoid the necessity of placing unstamped mail and coins in the boxes that the carriers should not be required to extend this convenience. The Department has given the subject much attention in the past but it has always felt that to deprive the patrons of this advantage would greatly reduce the facilities which they enjoy and might be of serious consequence when because of illness or other reason they were unable to provide themselves with stamps and thus would be deprived of the privilege of mailing letters at a time of the greatest necessity.

It is the expectation and requirement that roads used by rural carriers shall be kept open and in good passable condition at all times but it is recognized that conditions will arise as a result of which some of the roads become in bad condition and cannot be immediately repaired. It is thought, in such circumstances, and in order to continue service to patrons, that carriers will make special effort to serve their routes in their entirety and if this be not practicable, to make such temporary deviations or detours as may be warranted or necessary to continue good service to the patrons, the latter to accommodate themselves as far as possible to the necessities of the case by moving their boxes for a time if this be essential to a continuance of service to them.

When it becomes necessary by reason of the closing or destruction of roads or bridges for carriers to make considerable changes in the lines of travel, prompt report of that fact should be made to the Division of Rural Mails, Bureau of the Fourth Assistant Postmaster General in order that proper instructions may be issued and adjustments of pay cannot be made to be effective from date earlier than the first of the month in which satisfactory evidence is received by the Department.

The question is asked occasionally as to what work may be required of rural carriers in connection with or supplementing the work of city and village carriers. Postmasters at city delivery and village delivery offices have been permitted to require rural carriers to deliver parcels to patrons of the city or village delivery service when such deliveries could be made without the necessity of having the carriers deviate from the established lines of travel or unduly retarding the delivery of mail to patrons of the rural routes. As it was not thought well to permit the rural carriers to leave their conveyances or to enter buildings to effect delivery, it has not been found practicable to make any general use of their services in this respect and the regulation permitting it has been revoked. Rural carriers, of course, may serve persons residing in villages and persons residing outside the city delivery limits of cities in which that class of service is in operation in all cases where such persons qualify as patrons of rural delivery by the erection of approved boxes. The provision of the regulations that postmasters at city delivery offices may require rural carriers to relay bundles of mail to package boxes for subsequent delivery by city carriers is still effective and is believed to be of considerable value in facilitating the work of city carriers.

Rural carriers are, of course, thoroughly familiar with the conditions obtaining on the routes as served by them and are especially competent to make suggestions of changes in all cases where the families served by the amount of mail delivered and collected does not warrant the continuance of service over portions of routes; also where the number of families to be served and the conditions of the roads which would be covered fully justify extensions of routes. The Department would appreciate and would give prompt attention to any suggestions made by carriers looking to the betterment of the service, its extension to families not conveniently served, the enlargement of its scope or improvement in any respect.

For the benefit of those carriers who are not familiar with the present law authorizing annual and sick leave with pay it may be stated that every regular carrier, regardless of the fact if it is a fact, that he has been in the service but a short time may take annual leave at the rate of 1 1-4 days for each month of actual service, and ten days' sick leave during each fiscal year. It is the practice to permit a carrier who has been in the service as much as twelve months to take his full fifteen days' annual leave at any time during the fiscal year.

In the case of sick leave, if the ten days are not taken during the first fiscal year twenty days may be taken the second fiscal year, and likewise, if no sick leave is taken during the first or second fiscal year, thirty days may be taken during the third fiscal year, but any portion of such leave which is not taken before the end of the third fiscal year, counting from July 1, 1921, in the case of carriers in the service at that time, or from the first of any subsequent fiscal year in the case of others, must be forfeited. They then begin a new period of three years. More than ten days' sick leave with pay can not be granted in one fiscal year unless it has accrued from a preceding year.

In the case of annual leave, it must be taken during the fiscal year in which earned or it is forfeited.

County Agent E. G. Roth, County Agricultural Agent E. G. Roth told of the relations between county agents and carriers and the cooperation which could be carried out and by being the exponents of true optimism. Both being employees of the government can easily work together and with great advantage.

The convention throughout has had regular business hours, starting promptly at 8 o'clock in the morning and 1 o'clock in the afternoon.

The delegates are earnest and attentive and thoroughly interested in the phase of every discussion brought up.

Resolutions
Resolutions considered by the resolution committee, W. H. Everest, chairman, W. L. Riley and N. L. Person included:

Pledging loyalty to government and post office department.

Thanking arrangement committee, county, city, Chamber of Commerce, Postmaster Dunn, church people, County Attorney Alderman, Webb Publishing Co. for courtesies extended.

To use influence association to secure a 30 day vacation, 30 day sick leave annual and increased leave of absence for prolonged illness.

That rural carriers at first and second class offices be paid by the postmaster the same as city carriers and clerks are paid.

That part of great sums being expended on national highways by the state government be applied to improving rural routes.

That the same rate of pay, for over 24 miles should be allowed by the department, it being only justice that every mile over 24 should draw pay for as much or more than the first 24.

That a committee be appointed to wait on the state legislature and ask a reduction of, at least, three-fourths of the present taxes on cars used in the mail service.

That a committee of one or more be appointed to draft and circulate a petition, addressed to Henry Ford, that he make a special price to rural carriers for Ford cars, purchased to be used on rural routes.

That the postal department designate one rural letter carrier in each county as a rural route inspector. That he be a carrier in actual service, appointed upon petition of the rural letter carriers and the postmaster of the county. This resolution was brought up because the rural routes have previously been inspected by men without any practical knowledge of rural mail service or of roads.

That rural carriers be given same advantages named as mounted city letter carriers.

That the department erect sheds

at postoffices to house waiting rural carriers' horses.

Championship Form

We are very proud of the world's stock chassis records won by our Daytona 6-66 model. But we are not race "fans" or speed fanatics.

We believe in heroic tests—not because they prove that our cars are fast—but because they prove that our cars are strong, durable, trustworthy.

We are convinced that championship form is the one best guarantee of all 'round efficiency. A car that is capable of 90 miles an hour must be blessed with a sound, robust constitution and immense reserve powers.

If this sounds reasonable, why not take the next logical step. Have a ride in a 6-66 model and compare it with any other car, at any price, on the American market. Then, you will understand what we mean by championship form.

Championship Form

We are very proud of the world's stock chassis records won by our Daytona 6-66 model. But we are not race "fans" or speed fanatics.

We believe in heroic tests—not because they prove that our cars are fast—but because they prove that our cars are strong, durable, trustworthy.

We are convinced that championship form is the one best guarantee of all 'round efficiency. A car that is capable of 90 miles an hour must be blessed with a sound, robust constitution and immense reserve powers.

If this sounds reasonable, why not take the next logical step. Have a ride in a 6-66 model and compare it with any other car, at any price, on the American market. Then, you will understand what we mean by championship form.

BONUSES FOR EX-SERVICE MEN

Republican states have authorized approximately $340,000,000 cash bonuses besides giving much other help to their ex-service men.

Thirteen states have voted the doughboys cash bonuses, in the aggregate sum of $178,500,000, and the payment of these bonuses is either under way or practically completed.

The legislatures of six other states have authorized the payment of cash bonuses to their ex-service men, subject, under the law, to a popular referendum. The referendum in each case will be held this year. The total amount involved in these states approximates $160,000,000.

And there are still other states, as well as some of those voting cash bonuses, that have enacted laws providing for vocational training of ex-service men in their respective state institutions, or for free scholarships in state normals and colleges; still other provide for free settlement of public lands owned by the state, or sick benefits to disabled men and death benefits to their dependents, or exemption from state taxes up to a fixed amount, or loans to obtain education, to buy homes, farm machinery and livestock, or free hospitalization, etc.

The Republican party cannot be accused of ingratitude to the soldier boys.

CUT TRANSPORTATION TAXES

The proposed reduction of the transportation taxes by 50 per cent. will no doubt prove popular with the people, but it will probably help the railroads in postponing as long as possible the reduction of their rates. The chances are, however, that as business revives the railroads themselves will recognize the necessity of making voluntary reductions to stimulate business. Even our friends, the Democrats, will find it difficult to oppose this measure, though they will probably try to embarrass the Republicans by offering amendments to repeal all the transportation taxes.

Even the government printing office is economizing these Republican days. A saving of $3,500,000 will be made for the current fiscal year according to estimates presented by the public printer, George H. Carter, to Budget Director Dawes. This means that the government printing office under the new management will spend that much less money than appropriated for its upkeep.

With some $500,000,000 taken out of the army and navy estimates and $300,000,000 to come off the overloaded departments, while costs of materials and supplies are dropping, the government is fairly on the road to economizing in ten figures, which is the only measure of economizing that will fulfill the pledges of the Republican party and satisfy the American people.

New Park Theatre Today

Emphatic approval was voiced by the big audience that attended the premier presentation of Douglas Mac-Lean in his first individual starring vehicle, "The Jailbird", at the New Park theatre yesterday. Mr. Mac-Lean who demonstrated his popularity with picture fans in "Twenty-three and a Half Hours' Leave" in which he co-starred with Doris May, delighted anew with his role in this capital photoplay.

Mr. MacLean is seen as a rogue in
"The Jailbird", but a lovable chap for all that. He breaks out of jail, inherits a small fortune, goes west to edit a newspaper, excites the hostility of the staid old villagers, decides to bunco them into buying stock in a fake oil scheme, when presto! all his plans are upset by a gusher which enriches his intended dupes and himself. Then he falls in love and to prove himself really worthy of his sweetheart goes back to prison again to serve his unexpired term.

"The Jailbird" is a novel picture and may be seen again today. Doris May, in the role of a society editor is charming, while the "Skeeter" of Lew Morrison leaves little to be desired. The cast generally is clever, the photography is fine and the direction highly effective. That "The Jailbird" is a fitting successor to the four previous pictures in which Mr.
MacLean essayed the stellar roles,
was clearly evidenced by the hearty manner in which it was received.

Wm. Russell at the Lyceum Tonight

There is some thing unusually good at the Lyceum today judging from applause heard at the matinee performance this afternoon. There is no question but what Bill Russell the popular Fox star is getting to be one of the best liked male stars of the screen today and his work in "Bare Knuckles" a western drama which is being shown at the Lyceum tonight is said to be without equal. There are also two comedies on the same program.

Corinne Griffith Sunday

Burke, the big game hunter, explorer, blackmailer and smuggler is
"The Whisper Market," which will be shown at the Lyceum theater Sunday afternoon and night is a striking exemplification of the old saw that
"there's a bit of good in the worst of us." Corinne Griffith has the stellar role.

There are some very fine comedies and short subjects on the same program.

WAY ESTABLISH BIG FISH HATCHERY

Natural Advantages at Gull Lake Dam May be Further Developed by the Government

EMPLOY FIFTY MEN OR MORE

Federal and State Experts Visited the Dam on Saturday and Gained Much Data

The fame of the natural fish hatchery near the Gull lake dam has spread about the country and today federal and state experts examined the site on its various advantages and may evolve a plan to increase its usefulness through science, etc.

It is rumored that plans may be evolved to give employment to fifty or more men at the enlarged hatchery. Further developments are awaited with interest by the members of the Crow Wing Game, Fish & Bird Protective League which in the past has done much to bring the advantages of the natural fish hatchery to the attention of the government.

GROUP GATHERING HELD

Meeting of Sunday Schools at Lake Edwards Sunday Proved Great Success

The group gathering of Union Sunday schools held at Lake Edwards, Sunday, August 7 under the auspices of the American Sunday School Union proved to be a great success. The morning program opened with a fine gospel message by Rev. W. J. Lowrie, now pastor of the First Presbyterian church at Windom, Minn. Mr. Lowrie's many friends were delighted to hear him once more. There were about 200 present at the morning service.

The parade of Sunday schools which took place immediately after dinner, was a feature of the day long to be remembered. There were eight schools in line divided by their banners. Each school took a part in the afternoon program, and they all did fine.

Owing to a lack of time some of numbers had to be eliminated. Among the addresses of note given during the afternoon was the address by Rev. John O. Ferris, superintendent of the northern district of the American School Union on "The Child and the Sunday School." This was an able address and one that should stir many to action along Sunday school lines.

D. C. Henderson also gave a very fine talk entitled, "The Message of Paul." It was well delivered, and well received. The beautiful selections, by the Nisswa Sunday school orchestra added spice and flavor to the whole program. Too much cannot be said in their favor. In fact the whole day proceeding were like the little boys ice cream, it tasted like more.

DOLL CARRIAGE PARADE

Sensation of the Carnival—Pictures Taken and Prizes were Awarded

The Home Town Carnival doll carriage parade proved to be the sensation of the Carnival. Twelve little girls decorated their doll carriages advertising the Home Town Carnival and paraded from the carnival grounds down Front street to the First National Bank, thence to Ed Levant's store and thence to the Citizens State bank where all were lined up and Franz R. N. Anderson snapped a picture of the procession.

After the pictures were taken the judges gave their decision as to the prize winners and Clark Hayes, secretary of the Home Town Carnival, presented each of the prize winners with a silver dollar. All participants in the parade were given passes to the home talent shows.

Alderman Bukowski, William Vilas, and Mrs. Herbert were the judges and first prize was awarded to Doris Grewco, daughter of the city clerk, and second prize to Margaret Vilas. Other participants in the parade were Ruth Schwartz, Virginia Lindberg, Mary Kampmann, Mae McQuinnlan, Myrtle Wilson, Anna Cass, Ruth Risberg, Gladys Tibbetts, Geraldine Anderson, Ile Stowell, and Gertrude Peterson.

Little Miss Grewco had her doll and carriage all decorated in red and white and the dollie sat in the carriage holding a placard advertising the Home Town Carnival, other placards advertising the Philippine show. Miss Vilas decorated the doll and carriage in yellow and white and was dressed in yellow and white to match. Her carriage advertised the Home Town Carnival and the Papermakers' Bowery dance.

ROLLER MILL FOR BRAINERD

Rumors were afloat today that the Northern Pacific railway company may establish a large steel rolling mill and furnaces in the city of Brainerd. This would give employment to as many men as are now at work in the railway shops.

The rumor could not be verified and it is published as a rumor. Nevertheless it shows that large interests are casting their eyes on Brainerd and the city may be due for expansion never dreamed of before.

With iron mines right in Brainerd city limits and near by, the idea of a rolling mill and furnaces is entirely practical.

WHITE UNIFORMS WITH DASH OF PURPLE CHOSEN BY ELKS FOR CONVENTION

St. Paul Elks who will attend the St. Cloud convention which opens there on the 24th will come arrayed in snow-white haberdashery, according to the edict issued from the headquarters of the St. Paul lodge. There will be just enough purple to show that the wearers are Elks. White felt hats will be surmounted by a purple band, and a purple necktie will adorn the shirts of the antlered brethren. White trousers and white shoes are prescribed. The socks will be purple, to match the tie, hat-band, and the purple cane with which each Bill is enjoined to equip himself.

Order to the St. Cloud Bills provide for the same sort of a regalia, omitting only the purple socks and white shoes. Red, tan, brown or black shoes are permissible and socks may be any color of the rainbow as far as the formal mandate is concerned, but the discriminating choice of colors made by the Twin City Elks will doubtless also be followed by St. Cloud local brethren.

War Relics Prove Interesting to the Visitors—Riding Devices Well Patronized

At the Monday and Tuesday performances of the Home Town Carnival and Little Giant Shows Brainerd men will take charge of ticket boxes and bally boxes for two nights. Many Brainerd people are amusing themselves picturing various well known citizens of the city taking the soap box and boosting the sale of tickets for an evening performance. The committee suggests that it might be interesting to see Fred Sanborn ballying for the W. C. T. U., or Henry I. Cohen selling tickets for the Monkey Speedway. Just imagine Rev. Cooke ballying in front of the Athletic Show and H. P. Dunn filling the Crazy House. To say nothing of the fun of watching Rev. Cadwell bringing patrons to the Fortune Tellers, and C. D. Johnson inviting you to watch the Motordrome, while Ed. Levant was packing the Circus Side Show, and Roland Jenkins was telling the mysteries of the 10 in 1 show. And all this time think of Henry Roberts pleading with you to visit the Spidoro show, where the spider with the ladies head may be seen crawling around its web.

The committee plan to make these last two days big days for the Home Town Carnival and people of Brainerd and wish to call attention again to De Waldo, the great American gymnast, and sensation of the Midway. DeWaldo's performance tonight will be worth going miles to see. The American Legion show of war relics will be open again tonight and a large crowd is expected.

FILIPPINO GROUP

Five Musical Students from University of Minnesota Make Hit at Carnival

The group of five musical Philippine students from the University of Minnesota are attracting much attention by their wonderful performances on all manner of stringed instruments. Their beautiful, plaintive Philippine songs touch the hearts of all who hear them.

The Philippine and Spanish folk dances are charmingly portrayed by Miss Florence E. Pierce, a senior at the University high school, and Abelardo B. Runez. The native Philippine costume worn by Miss Pierce is made of pineapple cloth and is made in a style distinctly different from the American dress, in that there is more cloth in each sleeve than is used in the average American girl's dress.

The boys charm by their pleasing personalities and their spirited rendering of their performances.

The Philippine cane fencing corresponds to the Spanish sword fencing and is much admired for its scientific qualities and the unusual grace with which Celdonio R. Maglaya and Abelardo B. Runez render it.

SUMMER VISITOR IN AN AEROPLANE

By telephone to Dispatch: Breezy Point, near Pequot, Minn., August 13—When John W. Norton, president of the St. Paul baseball club was called to St. Paul by Judge K. M. Landis to suppress alleged pool selling and other gambling in baseball, he did not take a train or automobile to the cities. He made a "flying" trip.

With Capt. Billy Fawcett, owner of Breezy Point lodge at the helm, the big Curtis flying machine took to the air and made the 145 mile trip to St. Paul in two hours.

When the investigation had attained definite results, Mr. Norton will return by aeroplane to Breezy Point Lodge and join his family spending their summer vacation there.

INTERNATIONAL FIRST AID TO RESCUE MEET

The unsung, unheralded hero, who performs his deeds of valor thousands of miles from the bullet-swept battle field in dark underground crannies reeking with the deadly gases that attend mine explosions and fires, is to be accorded well merited recognition at the International First Aid and Mine Rescue meet to be held in St. Louis on September 1, 2 and 3. Gold medals and diplomas of valor for saving, or dying in the attempt to save, the lives of their fellow miners, will be awarded to twelve heroes of mine disasters, or their nearest surviving relatives, by H. Foster Bain, Director of the United States Bureau of Mines, on behalf of the Joseph A. Holmes Safety Association, of which he is President. The International First Aid and Mine Rescue meet, the fourth of these events, will be held under the auspice of the Bureau of Mines in cooperation with the American Red Cross, the National Safety Council, and various miners and operators organizations and associations.

Medals will be awarded to six Butte, Montana, miners for their efforts to save the life of a surveyor who was overcome by gases from a mine fire at the Leonard mine of the Anaconda Copper Mining Company. These men are K. P. Krueger, Levi E. Ryan, Frank Pierce, Herbert Farlin, George Reichert and John Gregovich. Medals will be presented to the nearest relatives of Francis Henry Murphy and William Ferrington, Kansas, who lost their lives in the No. 19 mine of the Jackson-Walker Coal and Mining Company in an effort to rescue two shot-firers who were imprisoned following an explosion in the mine and who were later found dead.

Alex Ogilvie and Thomas Gold, of Lehigh, Okla., will each receive a medal for extricating at great risk a worker who accidentally came in contact with an electrically-charged wire, receiving a shock which rendered him unconscious. After extricating the unconscious miner, Ogilvie and Gold immediately applied first aid methods, giving him artificial respiration, which, in thirty to forty-five minutes, resulted in his being revived.

Medals will be presented to the nearest relatives of Lasco Robinson and Clarence Williams, of Degnan, Oklahoma, who died in their attempt to warn miners in the No. 19 mine of the M. K. and T. Coal Company of an impending explosion from an accumulation of gas within the mine. Before Robinson and Williams reached the men to give them warning, the gas accumulated and the explosion occurred, resulting in the loss of ten lives, including their own.

The Joseph A. Holmes Safety Association was founded in 1916 to honor the memory and continue the work of Joseph A. Holmes, the first director of the Bureau of Mines and the popularizer of the slogan, "Safe is First."

The association is completing its plans for the formation of local safety chapters of the national parent organization. The proposed chapters, it is hoped, will be the means of bringing together the miners and mine officials as common workers in the great cause of making safer the operation of the 35,000 mines, quarries and smelters in which a million men do their daily toil.

The meeting of the Joseph A. Holmes Safety Association will constitute part of the program of the International First Aid and Mine Rescue meet in St. Louis. It is expected that 100 first-aid and mine-rescue teams from various mining districts of the United States, Canada and Mexico will compete for different championships. The contests will be held in the Coliseum, where a special mine gallery has been constructed, in which the rescue contests will be carried on under conditions approximately as closely as possible those found in mines following a disastrous fire and explosion.

Conferences will also be held for the possible standardization of mine rescue breathing apparatus. The governments of Great Britain and Belgium have designated representatives to attend these conferences.

The prizes of the competition will be presented at a banquet on the closing evenings of the meeting. Among the speakers at the banquet will be Governor A. M. Hyde of Missouri; John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers of America; J. G. Bradley, president of the National Coal Association; Representative Marion E. Rhodes, chairman of the House Mines and Mining Committee; and H. Foster Bain, director of the Bureau of Mines.

Brainerd Racquetters Invade Little Falls

Thursday afternoon a foursome of Brainerd's tennis enthusiasts motor-ed to Little Falls and engaged the racquet-wielders of that city in a hotly contested match that ended in a draw. Ideal tennis weather favored the match, while the grounds of the Little Falls club had been put into a condition fit to match the weather.

At four o'clock the last parley on rules and regulations was closed and the players went to court. Because of the late hour at which the tourney was begun the customary opening sets of singles were dispensed with and the opposing pairs faced the nets immediately in doubles.

The first brace of sets found Mr. Cobb and Dr. Evert defending Brainerd against A. C. Bacon and M. Richard of Little Falls, while K. Tanner and J. S. Lewis held the second home-court against the visiting Stanley Durham and B. W. Orne. The latter pair were relieved of two sets in few but fast games, losing at 9-7 and 6-4. Meanwhile the Cobb-Evert combination suffered a similar defeat, losing the first and third sets at 7-5 and 6-3 and winning the second at 7-5.

The second bracket placed Cobb and Evert against Lewis and Tanner, and by a game of intelligent placing and dashing aggressiveness, the Brainerd men succeeded in defeating their opponents with the score at 6-4 and 6-2.

The three sets of the second semester featuring Orne and Durham against Bacon and Richard were introduced by the loss of the first by the Brainerd players to the Little Falls men at 6-2, and the match seemed safely in the hands of the latter men when Brainerd rallied and Orne and Durham, by a smashing attack and a display of tennis smacking of the professional forced opponents to the wall to the count of 6-3. The tenseness of the situation was prolonged through the final set when Bacon and Richard slowly and under hard fighting gave ground, surrendering at the end of the fourteenth game and relinquishing the set at 8-6.

Dr. Evert easily took first honors of the afternoon by exhibiting a brilliantly aggressive game, with Bacon a close second. Mr. Cobb played in his usual heady and steady style, while Richard and Durham shown by their splendid defensive work at the net. Orne and Lewis played a game somewhat erratic, coming through, however, with great show of strength in the tighter moments of the match, Orne especially coming to the fore in the last and telling games.

Closing, as the contest did, with neither team showing at a decided advantage, it is only to be hoped that these teams will meet again to prove the superiority of whatever team may claim to be the more deserving of victory.

Private Detectives Perpetrate Bomb Outrages Say Police

(By United Press)
St. Paul, Aug. 13—Bomb outrages against contractors in the twin cities have been perpetrated by private detectives who are trying to intimidate them, police said today.

Chief of Police Crepeau said arrests would be made today as a result of bombing of the home of F. C. Norlander Thursday night.

Several private detectives came here from Chicago during the building trade lockout, it was said, and tried to hire out to contractors to protect their property. The contractors refused to employ them, police said, and as a result the detectives tried bombing to lead contractors to believe that union men were conspiring against them and that they needed protection.

INTERNATIONAL FIRST AID TO RESCUE MEET

The unsung, unheralded hero, who performs his deeds of valor thousands of miles from the bullet-swept battle field in dark underground crannies reeking with the deadly gases that attend mine explosions and fires, is to be accorded well merited recognition at the International First Aid and Mine Rescue meet to be held in St. Louis on September 1, 2 and 3. Gold medals and diplomas of valor for saving, or dying in the attempt to save, the lives of their fellow miners, will be awarded to twelve heroes of mine disasters, or their nearest surviving relatives, by H. Foster Bain, Director of the United States Bureau of Mines, on behalf of the Joseph A. Holmes Safety Association, of which he is President. The International First Aid and Mine Rescue Meet, the fourth of these events, will be held under the auspices of the Bureau of Mines in cooperation with the American Red Cross, the National Safety Council, and various miners and operators organizations and associations.

Medals will be awarded to six Butte, Montana, miners for their efforts to save the life of a surveyor who was overcome by gases from a mine fire at the Leonard mine of the Anaconda Copper Mining Company. These men are K. P. Krueger, Levi E. Ryan, Frank Pierce, Herbert Farlin, George Reichert and John Gregovich. Medals will be presented to the nearest relatives of Francis Henry Murphy and William Ferrington, Kansas, who lost their lives in the No. 19 mine of the Jackson-Walker Coal and Mining Company in an effort to rescue two shot-firers who were imprisoned following an explosion in the mine and who were later found dead.

Alex Ogilvie and Thomas Gold, of Lehigh, Okla., will each receive a medal for extricating at great risk a worker who accidentally came in contact with an electrically-charged wire, receiving a shock which rendered him unconscious. After extricating the unconscious miner, Ogilvie and Gold immediately applied first aid methods, giving him artificial respiration, which, in thirty to forty-five minutes, resulted in his being revived.

Medals will be presented to the nearest relatives of Lasco Robinson and Clarence Williams, of Degnan, Oklahoma, who died in their attempt to warn miners in the No. 19 mine of the M. K. and T. Before Robinson and Williams reached the men to give them warning, the gas accumulated and the explosion occurred, resulting in the loss of ten lives, including their own.

The Joseph A. Holmes Safety Association was founded in 1916 to honor the memory and continue the work of Joseph A. Holmes, the first director of the Bureau of Mines and the popularizer of the slogan, "Safe is First."

EX-LABORER GETS BANK POSITION

Of special interest is the employment of Walter True by the Farmers State Bank, Ottertail, Minn. Not long ago Mr. True was a railroad section hand. He wisely took a friend's advice to get a commercial education at Dakota Business College, Fargo, N. D. The results speak for themselves.

D. B. C. pupils come from farms, stores, factories, kitchens, public schools to be trained for business life. Thousands have made good. "Follow the Successful." Enroll for Fall Term. Write F. L. Watkins, Pres., 806 Front St., Fargo, N. D., for information.
